

Rex A. Campbell

July 4, 1965 - December 1, 2024

Rex Arlen Campbell, a beloved son, brother, and friend, passed away on December 1, 2024. He was born on July 4, 1965, in Huntington, Indiana to the late Paul Eugene Campbell Jr. and Ethel Rose Stacy Campbell.

In addition to his parents, Rex, was preceded in death by his only son, Tyson Andrew Campbell, brothers, Paul Eugene Campbell III and Richard Allen Campbell, nephews, Joseph Scott Williams and Shawn Wesley Combs, and dear friend Tim Tackett.

Rex found solace in the simple pleasures of life. He cherished spending time with loved ones, often embarking on fishing and camping adventures. An avid car enthusiast, Rex loved working on cars. He liked to stay busy so you could always find him tinkering around working on something. He also loved watching TV.

A giving person, Rex, was a kind and compassionate soul who always put others' needs before his own. In a final act of kindness, he came an organ donor – giving the gift of life to others. His legacy and compassion will live on through the lives he touched.

Rex leaves behind his loving partner, Michelle Parker, his brother, Michael Shane (Sue) Campbell of Cornettsville, Kentucky, sisters, Jennifer Lynn (Randy) Combs of Nicholasville, Kentucky, Lorie Ann (Mark) Rexroad of Lexington, Kentucky, Stacy (Thomas) Campbell of Jeff, Kentucky, and Heather Nicole (Jeremy) Combs of Lexington, Kentucky. He also had many special friends, a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

“ I met Rex and the Campbell family over 40 yesterday ago. It was a house on a dead end road close to Baxters restaurant. Met them again when they moved to Andrews. 1987 I started my first job after graduation and there was Rex. We became friends and for several years I was basically camped somewhere in wherever he lived along with Tim, Terry, Jamie to mention a few of us that were brothers at heart.
