“ Cousin Dickie was just a few months older than me... we grew up together in the same house... Uncle Lew and Aunt Kathryn had one side of the house, and Mom and Dad, with me, had the other side of the place... In later years, I thought Dick was the most handsome State Trooper I had ever seen in my entire life! He wore that uniform well !

Makes me sad that we have lost yet another Cousin. God Bless his Children and Grandchildren.
