“ I will always remember Ron for his tireless contribution to the 4-H Community. He was at the fairgrounds for set-up and the take-down working hours without a complaint. Ron was always the smiling face for all 4-H members' achievement: participation ribbons were as important to Ron as Grand Champions. Always optimistic, helpful, friendly and such a hard working individual.

I am saddened by his pre-mature passing and wish Nancy and the rest of his family peace and loving memories.

“ So sorry for the Beaver family, Ron was such a wonderful person. Ron was a blessing to be around, his knowledge was shared of agriculture, 4-H, leadership (with offices he was elected too), and love for his community and his family. Ron is now on Gods counsel. Prayers for you're family.

“ Fun times remembered from old Rural Youth Days: Camp Dick Runion, Square Dances, traveling to square dance with other county members.....such memories. Too, my first experience to BELLING a newly married couple when Jim and Lois were married. A great time for us who belonged to that group back then. Ron, Lois and Jim are still wonderful people in my memory. I am so sorry to learn of a kind man's passing and the sadness of those left behind. Prayers are with all of you. Marilyn (Kapp) Stoffel
