“ I met Ron when he started training to be a bus driver. He was always upbeat and positive. When it came time for him to test, the guy at the testing site stood in his way when it was time for him to line the bus up to parallel park. In spite of this, Ron was able to wiggle that bus into the parking spot and passed the first try! He kept up a positive attitude through the whole ordeal. He's gone way too soon and will be missed by many. My heartfelt sympathy to his loved ones.

“ I met Ron for the first time when his dog had puppies and He invited me over to see them. I loved how he went to adopt one dog from the shelter and came home with a surprise of six because mama was expecting babies. Such a kind caring man gone way too soon. You will be missed.
