“Michelle and I knew Rose as Mom and Grandma Rose. Growing up as teenager and hanging out with her sons Dan, David, and Dean I always felt comfortable around Rose and her late husband Ed. Rose was also my Barber if you showed up on the days she was cutting hair and she was as good as any body out there. She became Grandma rose when my oldest was born and we had the honor of her watching our daughter a few times which my daughter still remembers. The biggest regret we have is not seeing her one time and saying thank Mom and Grandma Rose for everything you done for us.
