“ mom its been a week today and it is still so hard . I go about my life then I remember your not here and its like reliving it over again. I know time will make it better but it seems like it will take forever. I love you with all my heart life will never be the same without you. Knowing your free and with God and family is what gets me through. I will see you again in heaven love you.

“ Dear Larry, Jenny, Cindy, Linda, Jr. and Michelle, I pray God sends his comfort to you during this very hard time. Rosie was one of the "neighborhood Moms" and she will be so greatly missed. I know she's having a grand time in Heaven right now and She and Dad are probably laughing it up. I will never forget her fabulous cupcakes she made for Halloween treats and her scaring us at 3 a.m. when we were camping out (and turning that darned light on)..... she would never go to bed!!!! Know that she is always watching over you and always with you. I know you are hurting so badly right now, but I promise.... it does get a little easier as time goes on.

“Mom, I love you with all my heart, always have and always will. Since you left I have a big empty space in my heart. I know that you aren't suffering anymore and you are free, but I would give anything to hear your voice one more time, or feel your touch again. I love you a bushel and a peck and a hug around the neck. Always and forever.

“Larry, Jenny, Cindy Linda Jr and Michelle and family. Hugs to all of you. Rosie was and is a wonderful person with a great sense of humor. We all know she is in heaven now, entertaining God and everyone there with her. She is writing her funny poems and baking cookies. She is also looking down on you with love and shining her big spotlight on all of you - so you will be safe and happy. Remember she loves you and is still with you always.
