“ We will be thinking of you. Cookie and I had great times working at the service desk together at Kmart. We would go back to her house after work and talk for hours. She would not let me drive to Columbia City if it was storming she would make me go back to her house and hang out and munch. Even if she wasn't closing the store that night and I was she would call if it was storming and tell me to get to her house till the storms passed. I always told her she was such a chicken. I will always remember her when we get a big thunder storm. Much Love Ena and Dennis.##imported-begin##Ena and Dennis Colbart##imported-end##
