A wonderful tribute for such a beautiful person. You touched so many lives during your short time on earth but you left a beautiful footprint on so many hearts. Rocky you are loved and missed by many.

Brenda Emley - September 15, 2016 at 10:18 PM

So beautiful and it brought on the tears. She was a beautiful person, inside and out and I fell in love with her the first moment I met and started talking to her. Snatched away from us far too early, but I have to believe that Father Knows Best." You will be so missed Roxi and our family will never be the same with you gone. The love you showed everyone came from the Father that you loved so much. No one can love like that unless they know the love of the Father. Until the day we meet again and you show us over heaven. Love and miss you so much.

Love,

Aunt Sherry

“ Hey baby I just found this page so I had to be nosey and check it out. What I really wanted to do was tell you how much I love miss and need you. When I found out you were gone it destroyed me and it's still does. I just want to go home to you and hold you. Tell you how much I love you and how lucky I am to have you in my life but I can't because you're gone. Anyway I get out of the hospital tomorrow finally and this neck brace comes off I still have a bit of brain damage lost half of my right ear sewed up nose and many broken bones that have recovered but that nothing compared to the loss of you. Just remember baby that you are in all my thoughts and I love and miss you more than anything in the world. This is the hardest thing I've ever dealt with.. I love you baby.

“ My mind spins to find just a few of the awesome qualities my beautiful niece exuded. Her loving kindness, the way the light of God shining through her lit up any room she entered, the easy way she made you feel like you were the most important person in her life. So, so many things I can't even think of them all. I bless the day she came into my life when she married my nephew, Dwayne. I loved Roxie from the first time I met her and it felt like I had always known and loved her. But that was Roxie. She had such a loving heart and spirit about her that you couldn't help but love her. I will miss you Roxie, but one day, we will meet again on heaven's shore, and we will never have to be parted ever again! Until then, rest in peace beautiful lady! You have found favor in God's eyes.

You were always a bright light in a dark world. To know you was to love you. Look for my mom and give her a hug for me as I know that you guys are chatting away by now and you have introduced her to the rest of your family.
