“ I remember the last time I saw Great Aunt Ruth. We ran into each other at what was Baxters restraint she with her friends .I was with my husband and elderly neighbor for our regular once a week breakfast. Aunt Ruth and I just stood there talking....(about a half an hour) when we realized we were being watched.both tables were waiting on us be for they ordered. We went to our tables and continued our across the room from each other. I will forever remember those talks ! An awesome lady will be sadly missed. Until we meet again. Much Love
