“ I am Ruthanne's second cousin, Susan Hill Moore. Her Aunt Mira was my Grandmother. Ruthann was ten years older than me. How I adored her and Doris! And Her dad, My uncle Sib would swing me on his porch swing and chuck me under the chin and say " Hey there, Suzy-q!!! Aunt Nora would have my Gram, Brother Bruce, Sister Ginny and I over to watch Ed Sullivan and eat big bowls of ice cream in their lovely living room. We were missionary kids, and only got to see family when on furlough in Indiana about every four years. I was a teenager in Korea when Aunt Nora died! How I prayed!! How I cried! Then years later I found My cousin Ruth Ann! Just corresponded once...then no more letters. I have a wonderful picture of her with arm around me at three yrs old .She would have been 13, I think. No one can take my memories away of that wonderful family! I was at Dick and Ruthann's wedding!! And got to see Sarah and one other little cousin just once at cousin Mary Janes house! But Whether I ever get to meet the rest of you...I want you to know you are so loved!!! God bless you!! Your Mo. Cousin , Susan Moore
