“ Bill, Ann, Kathy, Rusty and Karen,
Many years ago Mrs.Foraker dragged Kent and I along to CB radio poker runs. Coffee breaks at the rest stops during holiday weekends, and did countless other things to assist others. They never asked for recognition. Never wanted to be in the limelight. They served others tirelessly without a thought. Your Mom and Dad put up with our shenanigans without question. They kept us on the straight and narrow. Dragged us along and taught us the value of helping others. We didn't really know it then, but their lessons would impact our lives as we became adults. Personally, I've been instrumental in countless fundraisers to aid kids in the Indiana Wish Kid program, raise fifty percent of funding to build a home thru the Wounded Warrior Project. Plus many other programs. After retirement I continue to work for the homeless and hungry. I don't share this because I'm looking for accolades. I share this because people like Mr.and Mrs.Foraker planted the seed for the foundation of giving and serving. I will always hold my time with your family as a cherrished memory.

As I pray for your family, my prayer will be that other people in this world continue to serve others without question just like your beautiful Mother, Mrs.Sharon Foraker.

With Love, Respect and Prayers to All,
Chris Snider

“ As her first born grandson I was lucky enough to spend most of my young life with her. Almost every weekend I was spending the night. Fishing with grandpa on Saturday and hanging out with grandma when we got back. She made lemon meringue pie for me at every holiday as she knew it was my favorite. She's definitely going to be missed greatly.

Sharon and Bill were like a second set of parents to my family when we came to Indiana. They took us under their wing since we didn't know anyone here. Am going to miss her but at least we will have all our memories of her. ❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ So very sorry for your loss. Was very shocked to read this on Facebook. I worked with Sharon for many years at MagneTek. She was always good to me and a hoot to be around. She was also a very hard worker and good at her job. My deepest condolences to the family. Since moving to Fishers I've kind of lost track of people but Facebook has given me a chance to re-connect and Sharon was one of my friends.
