“ Steve was a great teacher he taught me how to play drums when I was younger.
I will never forget the time we held a birthday party for him at Studio One steve's drumset hadn't been used in years and Eric Squires and Myself set up my set with Eric on guitar and another teacher on Bass we bought pizza and got him gifts and let him rock out to Zeppelin all night I think that was the happiest I ever saw him he will truly be missed.

“ Steve delivered meals to my dad. He and my dad became friends and Steve looked out for my dad when he could. When my dad passed away, Steve took it very hard. He called me often to talk and share memories of my dad. I lost contact with Steve and had wondered about him. I am so very sad to hear about his passing. He was such a kind man, with a heart of gold.

“ Several years ago, Steve taught my son how to play the drums. He was an excellent teacher and very kind hearted. From time to time I would see Steve around town. He always asked about my son. The world needs more gentle people like Steve.

What a sympathetic heart towards animals. A great musician! I loved it when he played a song on his trumpet to Jesus!
