“ We met Susan through her working at McDonald's and us being frequent visitors. She always had a smile on her face and always made you laugh. We become known as her "2nd home friends" despite only socializing when we crossed paths at McDonald's. She was outgoing, sunny, funny, caring, and likeable. She was one of the very few workers who still smiled and went out of her way to make your visits pleasurable. We didn't know Susan on a personal level but I have no doubt her attributes were just the same at work as they were outside of work.. McDonald's has lost a very very pleasurable worker. We have lost our "2nd home friend". We will hold her family and friends in our prayers and thoughts as you all try to move past this trying time.

I worked with Susan at American Legion Post # 7 and she was a Great person to work with and going into McDonalds was always a treat to talk to her. It saddens me to hear this, . Rest in Heaven Sweet Lady. You will be missed.
