“ I just decided to look up an old friend and his obituary, but not really knowing for sure that he had passed away. I thought that his name was Jerry Bunker, but when i saw one for Terry Bunker, i just checked it out. And, i think that you are my old friend from childhood, and when i saw that your mother's maiden name was Reemer....i just knew that you might be the same guy. We lived across the street from a lady named Ollie Reemer in Andrews, and your family used to come visit her and that's how we met and became friends. AND i think that i remember your sister's name as being Sandy. Had i remembered your first name as being Terry, then maybe we could have gotten in touch....but i recalled your first name has having been Jerry. God Bless you, brother, and hopefully we will see each other in Heaven. Merry Christmas!

“ To Terry's family and friends my thoughts and prayers are with you.
I worked with "Bunk" at Pulley-Kellam several years ago.
We had a lot of fun with Pete back then.
I enjoyed seeing him through the years at different stores, he was a good guy.
