“ I know that we never got to meet in person but you were like another dad of mine. You would message me on Facebook messenger to see how i was doing. I loved seeing all of the snow globes and other things up for the holidays. I'm going to miss you greatly but I now know that you are watching down on me as we always said at the end of our chats I love you pops and never forget that. Till we meet up by the pearly gates. I love you and i always will. R.I.P. pops
