“ Uncle Tom took me to burger chef and gave me $2.35 cents before he took me to the bus station to head back to Indianapolis in 1968. I will never forget it. He has been my best friend ever since. He is with Son Jeff now. I’m certain they are having a dood time looking down on all of us.

“ I'll miss my father in law Tom. He was always honest and fair with me and loved seeing his grandkids. I'll remember sitting with him at the kitchen table shooting the breeze talking about family, sports, the news, and life in general. Rest in peace.
