

Timothy A. Wolford

August 5, 2019

Tim A. Wolford, age 53, of Huntington, died at 11:43 a.m. on Monday, August 5, 2019 at his home.

A celebration of life will be from 11 a.m. – 1 p.m. Thursday, August 8, 2019 at Heartland Church, 1025 Vance Avenue, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Tim was born on September 27, 1965 in Fort Wayne, the son of James A. and Elizabeth Florence Wolford. He received his Commercial Driver's License and was an over-the-road trucker for Tracy Stanley Asphalt Paving. He enjoyed shooting pool, fishing, and riding his motorcycle. He loved spending time with family, especially his grandchildren.

Survivors include sons Timothy James (Nichole) Wolford of Fort Wayne and Chancellor S. (Erica) Wolford of Goshen, daughters Breann L. Wolford and Taryn L. Wolford, both of Huntington, sisters Trudy L. (Tracy) Stanley of Huntington, Debra Shell of Iowa, and Carla A. Winters of Kendallville, brothers Robert Williams of Colorado Springs, Jim Wolford of Huntington, and Glenn D. Biddle of Fort Wayne, five grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his parents and a granddaughter, Gracelynn Wolford.

“ I will always remeber him when he would always tell to be save and stay out of trouble. I also will always remeber him telling me to finish what I start. I always known him as Wolfie and that will never change. That being said I love you my dear friend Wolfie and you will always be in my heart and you will never be forgotten in my eyes. Your friend Anita Waldron

“ Oh Tim where do I begin, I'm still trying to grasp the reality of you being gone. No more random calls or texts, no more of you just showing up at my house, at restaurants, or the store just to see me and say hi. I will forever cherish the love, friendship and bond that we shared. Later. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
