“ I guess I have knows Todd about 22 years (I have been going to Schroeders longer than that). He almost always had a smile (except when they put in a new computer) and was always so helpful. For awhile we had 4 vehicles so it seems we were getting cars repaired often. I will truly miss seeing him and talking to him when getting my vehicles fixed. He was a very friendly, helpful guy. My prayers are with the family.

“ Stout beers, good cigars, love of family, Andy Griffith, sports teams, reading on the porch, a good bourbon or whiskey, a ride to work when the car was being worked on at Schroeder's, willingness to help a friend, teasing...the list could go on. You're already missed Todd. Prayers for Zach, Kirk, Rhonda and Janna and his whole family.

“ Todd was a good guy, I knew him from school. We never called each other by name, but usually one referred to the other as "worm". We had an English class together with Mrs. Timmons and were both a bit of a disruption. I believe we had to spend the rest of the semester seated at the front of the class together so that the teacher could keep her eye on us. We had some laughs together and he will be missed. God Bless his grieving family.

“ I worked for Todd's father at Plaza Shell, back in the day and that is where I got to know Todd and Kirk. They came from a Great family and all the Geyer kids were good people. When Todd went to work for Schroeder's Automotive I kept in touch with him. He was always there to help in any way possible. Todd you will be missed by me for sure and by many others that you have inspired and touched by your kindness and you being you. Rest in Peace brother.

“ 45 plus years ago I was lucky enough to be good friends with Todd! During the summer he would always invite us to go swimming and sometimes sister Jana would invite some neighborhood girls and it was just a bunch of kids being kids swimming and having fun! I was there when his parents got him a four door red Studebaker with a 3 on the tree (dont quote me on that) but of course we had to go for a ride! When I think about those times it always brings a smile to my face!

Rest in Peace old friend!

“ Todd and his friend Ray took My best friend Tony and Me out to celebrate my 21st birthday... and Tony too.
Tony had turned 21 before me a little bit.
We started at Bandidos off N. Clinton st. Margaritas.
Lots of Margaritas. Then we went to other places and it steadily got worse lol. Gallons of beer and then Todd and Ray started buying Tony and I shots.
I remember going outside one place / and Tony emptied his stomach and went back in for more :)

As the night progressed..... that's between the 4 of us.
We then drove home. At about Roanoke area Todd had to stop the vehicle where I did my impression of the exorcist.... I made that girl look weak!!!!
AND we stop at Tony's. Let's just say it was an adventure watching Tony get to his door and open it.
That damn tree 30 feet away jumped at Tony! Lol.
I guess Tony got inside the door and laid right there and slept lol.
I went home and the next 2 days of my life I was white as a sheet with a terrible headache....

I loved working with Todd at the station. I picked up a lot of advice listening to him and his friends :)
Todd always treated me well, never shooing me away when I hung out with him and his friends.

Just like my mom is on the Mount Rushmore of moms... Todd is on the Mount Rushmore of cousins....
