“ Dear Sellers' Family,

I am so very sorry for your profound loss. I remember Tyler and his blond haired sisters as toddlers! I believe Sheila and my sister and I took all of them along with their 5 cousins to get ice cream. Your family is an inspiration to all of us who have had the privilege of knowing you. If there is anything you need please let me know. You are in my prayers daily.

“ Tyler, when I met you back in November and got to know you I immediately fell in love with your personality. You were the sweetest thing, taking care of me when we hung out that one and only time. But things changed and I got hurt, so I unfriended you to let you go on and live your life. My only wish now is that I would have stayed in touch. I will never forget how you looked at me, how you made me feel, or how you'd hold me close to you. People want to see the bad, but I always seen the good in you and knew you were something special. I will Never forget you and that smile! Love you. - Me.
