“ I loved Velma, her energy, kindness and effort to do any task very well. She cared for me and my family while I was laid up with a broken ankle, doing our housework and providing some wonderful food. She lived well and loved the LORD! Imagine the rewards she is enjoying now in heaven.

Peace and comfort to her closer relatives and friends from a more distant relative.

*I'm sorry I didn't see her obituary in time to visit at the funeral home.

“ I remember one of the first times I met "Grandma Hall"--she was making homemade noodles and they were draped all over her kitchen to dry. She was a neat lady!
