

Virginia E. Zahm Glasson

October 28, 1930 - February 8, 2009

Virginia E. Zahm Glasson, age 78, 208 West State Street, Huntington, died at 12:05 a.m. Sunday (February 8, 2009) at Parkview Hospital Ft. Wayne.

Mrs. Glasson sold real estate for many years in Indianapolis. Virginia was a member of the St. Mary's Catholic Church in Huntington.

Virginia was born on October 28 1930, in Huntington, to Eugene and Edith (Miller) Zahm. She was a 1948 graduate of Huntington High School.

Survivors include her son – Steven W. Glasson of Indianapolis; three brothers – Larry (Kathy) Zahm of Davenport, Florida, Eldon Zahm of Ft. Wayne and Maurice Zahm of Ft. Wayne; three grandchildren – Amie Shephard of Indianapolis, Adam Glasson of Indianapolis and Allison Glasson of Indianapolis; two great-grandchildren – Mya Sims of Indianapolis and Trevor Sims of Indianapolis. A daughter, Cynthia I. Monferdini, a brother, Captain Richard E. Zahm, and a sister, Edna M. Zahm, preceded her in death.

There will be no visitation and no funeral services. Burial will be in the Mt. Calvary Cemetery, Huntington, at a later date.