

Wanda Faye Nelson

July 2, 1952 - August 3, 2017

Wanda Faye Nelson, age 65, of Huntington, died Thursday, August 3, 2017 at her home.

There will be no visitation or funeral services.

Wanda was born on July 2, 1952 in Anco, Kentucky, the daughter of Chester and Georgia (Taylor) Stone. She graduated from Carr Creek High School in 1970 and married Anthony Nelson on June 14, 2001 in Warren. Wanda worked as a Qualified Medications Aide at Heritage Pointe in Warren.

Survivors include her husband, Anthony Nelson of Huntington, a son, John Slater and a daughter, Christina Slater, both of Huntington, and granddaughter, Jasmine Slater and grandson, Zachary Slater, both of Marion. She is preceded in death by her parents, a brother, Ralph Taylor, and a sister, Glenna Mullins.

Tribute Wall

AB

“ Wanda was a wonderful person. She was one of the nicest and kindest people I have ever known. She was a great person to work with and one of my all time favorites. We had some good times and I will cherish those moments. Till we meet again my friend....

Amanda Bell - August 07, 2017 at 06:56 PM

AS

“ Wanda I will miss you so much. The many many years of working with you and all the laughs we all had together. Attending Ivy Tech together and sharing the same feet problems as well as three other coworkers on the same floor,lol. I've walked a lot of miles with you at work my friend and had some wonderful Christmas carry-ins.Prayers be with your family. I'll be seeing you one day in the future,your friend Angie

Angie Sprinkle - August 07, 2017 at 03:41 PM

CB

“ After over 45 years of being more sisters than friends I will miss you everyday. Even though we didn't talk everyday the last year we both knew we where there together for each other. I love you dearly and will see you again soon !!

Cindy

Cindy Brown - August 07, 2017 at 10:46 AM