“ Daddy, I will never forget the special times we shared, even if some of them broke your heart. As I grew up sometimes I think of how you never let me know when I really disappointed you. You always made things better, but now for once you can't make this better I thought, but even before you went to heaven you told us all you loved us and told mom thank-you for a loving happy 60 years of marriage it made me feel like you were trying to make it better for us, at the time it really was hard ,but now it puts a smile on my face to know you loved us and told us that. It puts me at ease, because when I think of your last words and how much they mean to us, all is better. Love you forever and I'm waiting for the day we see each other again
