TH

“ Even at the point that Aunt Wilda's arthritis and visual loss would have been daunting for any other person, she refused to let it slow her down. She greeted each day with a smile and was most interested in what was going on in everyone else's lives. She was truly extraordinary. I remember my mom talking about her visits to Aunt Wilda and Uncle John when she was little - my own memories are of Monopoly marathons at Aunt Wilda's house - and being fascinated at learning that Aunt Wilda was Gen. Eisenhower's driver during the war. She'll certainly brighten up the hereafter!
