“ Buddy lived a life that he invested and dearly loved the people around him. I could sit for hours listening to his stories of his upbringing and his parents that instilled beautiful, Godly values that he passed on to all that knew him. His smile was contagious. Although little in size, that fella was a firecracker and made me laugh so much with his animation and expressions. Buddy lived a life of simplicity and his thoughts were always on his family and friends. Every conversation with Buddy, I'd walk away blessed and richer. He was truly a gentleman and never spoke crass or unkind words. He had just spoke of wanting to go "home" and be with Jesus and see his Mama and Daddy again, and his beloved Dorothy. I will see you later, Buddy. I love you and I'm so honored I got to be apart of your life. Prayers and love to his family<3

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Buddy's passing. I worked right around the corner from Bonded Gas Station and it was always a pleasure to walk over and see Buddy (and Charlie too). Both were very good men and they seemed to always have a smile on their face and something nice to say. I'm sorry for your loss!
