“What can I say about Bill that everyone hasn't already said? He was a rare soul that filled the last 8 years of my life with happiness. He was the BEST neighbor, that everyone wished they had. I just loved my daily waves from his garage. I catch myself looking down there and waving and then reality hits me...

Bill would have done anything for anyone, no questions asked. Once you were his friend, he watched out for you. We always said we were the neighborhood watch. He'd watch our home when we went away and we did the same when him and Doreen would leave. To be honest, he was always watching out for me. I felt safe when my husband would have to be out overnight because I knew Bill was right there.

I was terrified of guns but after Bill talked with me and actually taught me about firearms, I felt comfortable and purchased one. He showed me how to tear it apart and gave me tips about shooting.

My husband and I would go down and visit all the time until Covid happened. We decided to stay away due to their health. However, a week before Bill passed, we walked down and Bill came out to the garage and we just talked about life. Doreen, I'll be forever grateful for the both of you. You've never judged us and welcomed us into this neighborhood with open arms. All the visits, stories, food, phone calls, etc. I will hold dear to my heart.

God, please be with Doreen and the rest of their family and friends during this tragic time. Wrap your arms around each and every one of them. Help comfort them.

Rest In Peace Bill, we will sure miss your face.

“ Best neighbor anyone could ask for! I saw a cartoon on Facebook a few years ago showing two grown men having a snow fight with snowblowers pointing at each other. Someone made the comment that they could see Bill and I doing that! He agreed!😂 He was a lot of fun and we had each others back! Even my dog Paisley loved him! Anytime the garage door went up she would run and jump on his lap so hard that it would bout knock him out of his chair! A lot of good times, good talks, and good fellowship! Love ya man! Will really miss you! I know I will see you later my brother!❤️
