“ My condolences to Bill's family and friends. I knew Bill dating back to Bedford, (Oh) High School. Goodness, those were some carefree days - we knew precious little of what lay in store! I seem to remember Bill having a blue GTO, it was really, really fast too, though I can't recall if that was before or after the Service. Bill was (rightfully so!) very proud of his service to his country in the Marine Corps. A brave young man too, as a certain wall in the Washington DC Mall will attest. He was a loyal friend, quick to share a laugh and was good, Godly man. I'm glad that I can call him a friend. While I shall mourn his passing with you, I'm comforted knowing he's now in a perfect place- heaven- with the Lord where there's no suffering and we'll surely get to meet again. See ya later buddy.
